The Sober Thought

Maketh Jim Sick.

IS VERY SORRY IF HE HAS BEEN "MISCONSTRUED."

But it is Nobody's Business Except Those Chipping in a Dollar, that South Carolina Has Been Brought to Shame.

[Special to The State.]

Edgefield, Feb. 28.—When Lieut. Gov. Tillman was seen this afternoon with reference to the Roosevelt matter, although unwell, he said: "I regret very much that I am compelled to make any further statement in regard to this matter. I do not see why it has called forth so much comment, but I do not propose to be placed in the light, by my conduct, of having been the cause of President Roosevelt's decision not to attend the Charleston exposition. If such construction has been placed upon it either by him or the people of Charleston, I deplore it deeply. He may, however, make this the pretext of, not attending the exposition, but it cannot be the cause. I am in no way connected with the exposition officially or otherwise except as a South Carolinian who is proud of it and wants to see it succeed. I in no way attempted to represent the exposition authorities in my telegram to the president, and it cannot be so construed without intentionally debauching my words. The matter of the presentation of the sword by President Roosevelt to Major Jenkins was purely a private and social concern with which those who are now loud in their criticism of me had nothing to do. Certainly the editors of The Record, Post and State were not contributors, although to be frank and just, which is more than they have been to me, they were not asked. However, Governor McSweeney, who has given an interview in connection with this matter, was asked to contribute, and declined upon the ground, as I recall, that he had to contribute to so many charities and other public matters he was finally unable to do so, and I feel from experience that he was honest in his statement.

"So far as the list of the paid contributors to the sword fund is concerned, I desire to add, without having the list before me, that I only know of three who were not consulted before the telegram to the president was sent, to wit: Col. Willie Jones, who has been of valuable assistance both in contributing and selecting the sword, whom however I endeavored to reach by long distance telephone, as Mr. J. H. Hammond of the Augusta Herald will testify; another is Senator Talbird of Beaufort, a liberal contributor, whom I endeavored to reach but failed; the third and last was Senator Tillman, whom I did not ask as I knew the delicate position in which he was placed. As for the telegrams received by me from the contributors is a matter with which those who did not contribute have no concern. I have no doubt, however, that they, like himself, are ready to abide by the result of their action. I do not care and do not propose to have anything further to say, however much I may be slandered and misrepresented."

Dots from St. Philips.

We are glad to see that the weather has made a change, and we hope that warm weather will now continue. I have heard several people say that this has been the hardest winter for years.

There is a lot of sickness in our community at this writing.

Mr. W. D. Halfacre who has been in bed for about two months has made very little change. Hope that he will be better at my next writing.

Mr. A. P. Ruff happened with a very sad accident last Sunday afternoon while he was enjoying a ride with his best girl. His horse got frightened and ran away, throwing them both out of the buggy and hurting them very badly. We are glad to say they are improving.

The farmers in this section are waiting for the land to dry out so they can begin preparations for a new crop.

We are glad to say that St. Philip's has a pastor and he will commence preaching this month.

We are glad to say that our merchants are beginning to lay in their spring goods. Our little town Kaula is in a flourishing condition.

As news is scarce in this town I will close, with much success to The Herald and News. Featherstop.

March 7, 1902.

South Carolina Day at the Exposition March 20th, 1902.

The exposition at Charleston seem to be attracting a great deal of attention from the people of the country at large. Cincinnati and Chicago have sent large delegations there to inspect the show. The governors of Georgia, West Virginia and Indiana have been there with their staffs and others all seem to unite on one verdict, that it is as creditable an exposition as any held in this country. Illinois will inspect the exposition

CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, reaching every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected.

S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the Stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. Write us about your case and get the best medical advice free. Book on blood and skin diseases sent on application.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

March 11th, with a delegation of several hundred, and other States are booked for later dates.

The Legislature of South Carolina and the Governor of the State, have given their endorsement to the exposition, and urged that the people of the State visit the exposition at least once, and have named March 20th as South Carolina day, with the idea that there should be a grand rally of South Carolina on the exposition grounds on that day.

It is South Carolina's first attempt to show to the country at large the industries, resources and possibilities of the State. They have been well displayed.

Let us all go, and by our presence show an appreciation and interest in what has been done.

South Carolina Day at the Exposition, Thursday, March 20th.

Some reasons why the people of the State should visit the exposition on that day:

First. It is a South Carolina exposition in which the State and the people are vitally interested, as it presents to the people of the country at large for the first time the great possibilities of South Carolina, both as a manufacturing and agricultural State.

Second. The State has a building at the exposition in which are exhibited the industries and resources of South Carolina. Many of the people do not realize the magnitude of the possibilities that are within our borders. Go then and see them. You will profit by the trip in many ways.

Third. In the cotton palace, commerce, minerals and forestry, machinery and electricity, and West Indian buildings will be seen many exhibits that will justify the trip.

Fourth. To those who have never seen the exhibits of the United States Government, seeing them alone is worth more than the cost of the trip.

Fifth. The exhibits in the Woman's building will be of interest to every woman in South Carolina. The display is far superior to the woman's work at any other exposition.

Sixth. When you have seen all the exhibits of interest, the midway offers its attractions, where you can spend as much time in pleasure as you desire.

Seventh. The people of Charleston desire you to see the exposition, to see from your own observation that they projected the exposition in your interest, as well as theirs, and that we should be again united as one people.

Eighth. The railroad rates are very low, and accommodations for all can be secured in Charleston at reasonable rates.

Party or parties desiring to secure accommodations in advance will be able to secure same by corresponding with Mrs. A. H. Clancy, Manager Exposition Information Bureau, 217 Meeting Street, Charleston, S. C.

MISS GOULD DEPARTS.

She was charmed with Charleston and the Exposition and rode the Camels on the Midway.

[News and Conrier, 21st]

Miss Helen Miller Gould, who has been spending the last three days quietly in Charleston, left the city last night on her private car, Atlanta, for New York. Miss Gould and her party all expressed themselves delighted with Charleston and the Exposition, which they enjoyed thoroughly. The party visited the Exposition each day they were here, and spent the greater part of their time seeing and admiring the buildings and their contents.

Miss Gould was particularly pleased with the Woman's building and expressed her admiration freely at the wonderful work the women had accomplished, which she said was a credit to the city and the sex.

Yesterday morning was devoted by the party to a visit to the Midway. All of the attractions were visited in turn and thoroughly enjoyed. The party wound up at the Streets of Cairo, which had meanwhile been aroused by the cries of the Mnezzin or priest, who from his lofty perch in the minaret announced the presence of a distinguished Christian, who had come to pay them a visit.

Such a hurrying, scurrying and scrambling has never been known in the famed Streets of Cairo before. Camel boys, donkey boys, merchants, dancing girls, sword fighters, derisives, all rushed helter-skelter, for it was whispered that the Lady Bountiful of the Christians had arrived and there would be much "backsheesh" for all. Miss Gould and party arrived at the Streets of Cairo about 9:30. They were received by W. Maurice Tobin, "King of the Midway," who personally conducted the party through the streets, explaining all the details of the Beautiful Orient and many strange sights and interesting objects. After procuring some rare souvenirs from the Holy Land the party started to take advantage of the opportunities for pleasure which are presented in this interesting concession. Miss Gould enjoyed a ride upon Lily, the trained elephant, and a five minute spin mounted upon Carrie Nation, that popular "ship of the desert." The King then suggested a donkey race, to which Miss Gould heartily agreed. The race for forty yards. Miss Gould winning by a small margin on Holy Moses. After enjoying themselves to their hearts' content the party was invited by Mr. Gaston Akoun, the genial proprietor of "The Streets," to visit his Turkish den, where they were regaled with Turkish coffee and delicacies from the Orient.

Don't Lose Weight.

If you find you are losing your weight or if you are thin and weak—take Vinol with your meals and see how quickly you will gain flesh.

How Mrs. Jennie Gove Gained Seven Pounds.

Mrs. JENNIE GOVE, of Biddeford, Me., says: "She was all run down, no appetite, tired and no ambition for work. Her stomach had faint feeling in the morning. We persuaded her to try Vinol, which she did. She gained seven pounds in two weeks. From the first dose she began to feel better and now is strong and has plenty of appetite."

How Vinol Caused a Gain of Over 20 Pounds.

Mrs. N. B. JENNER, of Lakewood, N. Y., says that she wishes to make a statement as regards Vinol. "My normal weight is 175 pounds. When I began taking Vinol I weighed not over 100 pounds. Everybody thought I was going to die with consumption. I had three of the best doctors who did me no good, and I was practically given up to die. I could keep nothing on my stomach and vomited day and night. One day Messrs. Clark Bros. kindly sent me a little book on Vinol and my folks decided as a sort of last resort to get me a bottle which I began taking, and to the astonishment of all I began to get better. Have taken not all of two bottles yet, and have gained in weight over 20 pounds and more than that in strength. I am satisfied that I would not have lived a week longer had I not commenced taking Vinol."

Because Vinol is delicious, and because it does contain these much-sought-after medical properties of cod-liver oil without the disagreeable grease, we endorse it, and we unhesitatingly proclaim that it is better than any preparation of cod-liver oil or tonic builder we have ever had in our store. Your money back if you don't think so after you use it.
